A Homestay is popular, quality, and affordable student housing options among International students looking for a short or long term stay with a family near their school. A homestay is a healthy environment where students practice speaking a

FAMILY TYPES

Homestays may include a single host, couple, large or small families. All families offer a unique experience and will share the American lifestyle with you.

HOME TYPES

The type of home varies from host to host. While some hosts live in houses, others live in apartments or condominiums. Students will usually share the bathroom with the host family. Private bathrooms can be requested. (based on availability and not guaranteed)

MEAL PLANS

USH offers three simple types of homestay meal plans so that students will have more options to fit their individual needs. Snacks and lunch are not included.

Room with Meals <small>FULL BOARD</small>	Room and Breakfast <small>BED AND BREAKFAST</small>	Room Only <small>JUST THE ROOM</small>
With this option, your host will provide you with breakfast items that you can “grab-and-go” or prepare yourself. Lunch is not provided. For dinner you will be served a delicious portion of whatever the host prepares.	This options is for students who can prepare their own lunch and dinner, or plan to eat outside of the home. A continental breakfast in the morning will be provided each day.	This option is for students who choose to take care of all their own meals. We recommend this option for students who have diet restrictions (ex: vegetarian, religious, etc.). Your host will have cabinet and refrigerator space available for you to store your foods.
